Analysis

Site Planning - The proposed house's floor area addition was located with consideration to the numerous oak trees on and near the site. The properties within this neighborhood are known for their numerous oak and sycamore trees. The proposal's sensitive site planning will be consistent with the neighboring properties and with the intent of the Design Guidelines.

Mass and Scale - The proposal's sensitivity to mass and scale will be consistent with the existing house and compatible with the low-profile neighboring homes.

Building Design and Detailing - The proposed design and detailing is comprised of good quality materials, colors and details and appears internally consistent with the existing Ranch-style architecture. The proposal appears to be consistent the neighborhood architecture and will be consistent with the intent of the Design Guidelines.
