Talent Solutions for Your Business

Access to Qualified Applicant Pool: There are thousands of individuals registered in CalJOBS that the business services team has access to. We would be able to give the business access to these applicants by registering the business in the system as well

Tailored Applicant Screening: Based on the employer needs for applicant, the team is able to review and identify qualified candidates for interviews. This will save the business time and money

Full Recruitment Services: The team is able to do full HR services for the business. They will post the job openings, recruit qualified candidates, provide rooms for interviews and on-boarding new candidates

Labor Market Expertise: Team can share labor market information and trends with business

Wage Reimbursement: On the Job training services, where a business can get 50% reimbursement for wages of a client during their probation period

Tax Credits: Business is able to receive various amounts of tax credit through Employment Development Department based on the hired individual

Layoff Prevention: Team is able to review the business needs and recommend process changes or other resources that will prevent possible layoffs
