Arts and Culture Commission Announces Public Meeting—State of the Urban Art Program Plan

GLENDALE, CA -- The Glendale Arts and Culture Commission invites the public to attend a community update meeting concerning the State of the Urban Art Program Plan, on Thursday, January 9, 2020, at 7:00 p.m. at the Glendale Central Library Auditorium, 222 East Harvard Street, Glendale 91205. The Urban Art Program Plan was approved by the Glendale City Council on August 14, 2018. Catch up and see what has been accomplished in 2019, and join the conversation for what's to come in 2020. This event is sponsored by the Glendale Arts and Culture Commission through funding from the Urban Art Program.

Refreshments will be available. Please RSVP to: <http://bit.ly/UAPPMeeting> . Visitors to the Glendale Central Library receive 3 hours free parking is available at the MarketPlace Parking structure across Harvard Street. Bring your parking stub to the Central Library service desk.

The mission of the Glendale Arts & Culture Commission is to enrich the human experience, reinforce Glendale's identity and civic pride through arts and culture, and to recognize the importance of arts to our quality of life and to the local economy. This is accomplished by consciously integrating arts and culture into the daily life of the people of Glendale through urban design, planning, economic development, and education.
