Greetings from the Director

Winter 2021-2022

Regardless of what happened in 2021, attaining better physical, mental, and social health are probably still at the top of your resolutions list for 2022. The Community Services & Parks Department is here to help! Get a head start on your New Year's resolutions by enrolling in dance, sports, exercise, wellness, visual arts, or special interest classes. We are proud to offer a variety of options for everyone!

For winter break, consider registering your youth or teens in one of our fun and exciting winter day camps. This is a great time for youth to play games, create crafts, and make new friends. There is also a variety of classes for them to choose from, including soccer, tennis, drawing, or skating. It's also not too late to register for Thanksgiving day camps or too early to look ahead at the day camps that will be available in spring.

Adults can acquire peace and rejuvenation through yoga, aikido, and watercolor art classes, or release some extra energy in Zumba, volleyball, and badminton.

Senior adults can enjoy a variety of recreation events and programs that promote health, independence, self-sufficiency, and self-fulfillment. These opportunities await seniors at the Adult Recreation Center and Sparr Heights Community Center.

People of all ages and fitness levels can enjoy our trails and open space or visit our various historic homes. Look inside for other classes and activities offered this season, as well as human service programs for youth, families, and seniors.

Whether you attend a neighborhood park, community building, sports or special use facility, you'll discover a variety of recreation amenities available for your use. Celebrating a winter birthday, wedding, or special event? Our friendly staff is ready to help you find the right venue for you.

Last, but not least, I am pleased to invite you and your family to the Holiday Tree Lighting Ceremony in Perkins Plaza, behind City Hall, on December 3, 2021 at 6:00 p.m..

Respectfully,

Parks

FACILITY DESCRIPTION

- The Doctors House Museum is an authentically restored Queen Anne-Eastlake style home built around 1888.
- The Doctors House lawn area and gazebo are available for reservation for weddings and other special events.
- Smoking, barbecues, and amplified sound are NOT permitted because of the historic nature of the facility.

HISTORY

- The two-story house originally stood at 921 East Wilson Avenue in Central Glendale, but was moved to its present location in 1980.
- Four early doctors owned it in succession, giving the house its name. It was later occupied by silent screen icon Nell Shipman and her family in the early 1900s.
- Threatened with demolition in 1979, community activists organized to save it and formally incorporated The Glendale Historical Society on October 24, 1979.
- The Glendale Historical Society dedicated the Doctors House to the City of Glendale on September 12, 1982, after spending thousands of volunteer hours on restoration.
- The Doctors House is registered as Glendale Register of Historic Resources #6.

FACILITY DESCRIPTION

- The traditional teahouse was built in 1974 through the combined efforts of the Sister Cities of Glendale and Higashi-Osaka, Japan. It is one of the few traditional Japanese Teahouses open to the public in the United States.
- The Teahouse, which was designed by architect Hayahiko Takase, is a unique blending of western and eastern design and an apt expression of the spirit of cross-cultural community.
- Nestled at the foot of the Verdugo Mountains beside a koi pond in a charming Japanese-style garden setting, the Teahouse is in a unique position to outreach to the community of Glendale and greater Los Angeles.
- The Japanese Friendship Garden surrounding the Teahouse is available for weddings and other special events.

HISTORY

- The Teahouse represents the spirit of goodwill, lasting peace and friendship between the people of Japan and the United States.
- Given the name "Shoseian" or "Whispering Pine Teahouse" by Genshitsu Sen, the Fifteenth Grand Tea Master of the Urasenke School of Tea in Japan, the Teahouse is designated an official Tearoom. Dr. Yamazaki of Higashi-Osaka provided initial support for the Teahouse and Gardens.
- Through recent cooperative efforts by the City of Glendale and Friends of Shoseian, the Teahouse was refurbished and designated as Glendale Register of Historic Resources #46.

HISTORY

- Casa Adobe de San Rafael is registered as California Landmark #235 and Glendale Register of Historic Resources #3.
- The Casa was built around 1870 by Tomas Sanchez, former sheriff of Los Angeles County, using adobe blocks to form the walls, which were then covered with stucco.
- In 1875, the property was sold, left abandoned, and fell into a ruinous state.
- In 1930 the Casa was purchased by the California Medicinal Wine Company who planned to tear down the structure and remove the large eucalyptus trees on the property. Local neighbors and community members stopped the demolition and began a campaign to preserve the house as a historic landmark.
- The City of Glendale purchased the adobe in 1930 and by 1932 La Casa de Adobe de San Rafael was completely refurbished.
- Today, the adobe includes a Monterey-style corridor (covered porch), beautiful sunken garden, brick patio, sandy brown tile roof, and long narrow front windows adorned with teal shutters. Interior furnishings are from the nineteenth century.

FACILITY DESCRIPTION

- The park is 1.3 acres in size and is nestled at the base of the Verdugo Mountains in a residential neighborhood.
- Amenities include a walking trail, a garden, and a shaded picnic area with wooden tables, benches, and electric outlets.

- Smoking, barbecues, and amplified sound are NOT permitted because of the historic nature of the facility.

HISTORY

- The Catalina Verdugo Adobe is registered as California Historical Landmark #637 and Glendale Register of Historic Resources #1.
- The Adobe is the oldest structure in the City of Glendale. As with many early structures, the construction date of the Verdugo Adobe is uncertain. It is said the Adobe was built in 1828, but some research suggests that it dates to 1860. It was the home of Catalina Verdugo who, with her brother Julio, owned much of today's Northeast Glendale. Their father, Don Jose Maria Verdugo, was the original recipient of Rancho San Rafael, the Spanish land grant that encompassed large portions of Glendale, Burbank, and Eagle Rock.
- The grounds contain the remnants of the "Oak of Peace," under which a meeting was held in 1847 that led, a few days later, to the signing of the peace treaty, Treaty of Cahuenga, that ended the Mexican-American War.
- The Adobe originally consisted of the main room and the south wing. The north wing was added in the early 1900s, after it was sold to land developer F.P. Newport.
- In 1946, the property was sold to Dr. Ernest Bashor, and his family remained there until it was sold to the City of Glendale in 1989. It is fortunate that the historic value of the original house remained preserved.

Historic Buildings in Glendale Parks

Le Mesnager Barn at Deukmejian Wilderness Park 3429 Markridge Rd., Glendale, CA 91214

Deukmejian Wilderness Park occupies a rugged 709 acre site in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains at the northernmost extremity of the City of Glendale. Trails on the site provide spectacular views of the Crescenta Valley and the Los Angeles basin.

For information, call (818) 548-3795.

Rockhaven Sanitarium 2713 Honolulu Ave. Glendale, CA 91020

Rockhaven is a rare surviving example of the sanitariums that once flourished in the Crescenta Valley. First opened in 1923 by Agnes Richard as a “home for the feeble-minded women,” and later known as the “Screen Actor’s Sanitarium,” Rockhaven housed several Hollywood celebrities, such as Billie Burke, Flo Zigfield, Clark Gable’s first wife, as well as Marilyn Monroe’s mother. Over time, Agnes Richards purchased several neighboring Craftsman- style houses, and in the late 1920s and 1930s built several Spanish Colonial Revival style buildings which were designed specifically for the purpose of medical care and patient accommodations, expanding the facility to an approximately 3.5 acre site.

The character of this property was as much defined by its landscape as it was by its buildings. The buildings were, and still are, connected by meandering landscaped pathways, intimate gardens, patios, courtyards and expansive perimeter gardens to create a home-like setting for the individual care of the patients. In 1966, Rockhaven was awarded for its landscaping by Los Angeles Beautiful, Incorporated.

The City purchased the property in 2008 from Ararat Home, who had purchased the property in 2001 to operate a convalescent facility. The facility remains closed to the public at this time due to safety concerns.

You can read more about the facility by visiting the City’s website, www.glendaleca.gov, and searching Rockhaven in the search bar.

Introducing the Mosaic Mural at Deukmejian Wilderness Park

The Glendale Parks & Open Space Foundation (GPOSF) has commissioned Zoe Mosaics to create an original stained glass mosaic mural to serve as a portal into Deukmejian Wilderness Park and convey the stunning natural diversity of Glendale's greatest wilderness.

You can now add your name, the name of your family, company, or organization to a one-of-a-kind legacy tile on the mural!

All funds collected will go to GPOSF for trails and open space programs and programming for the future Nature Education Center at the Le Mesnager Barn at Deukmejian Wilderness Park.

To sponsor a mosaic tile or for more information, visit www.glendaleparksfoundation.org, or contact Paul Rabinov at (818) 631-6132; info@glendaleparksfoundation.org.

The Glendale Parks & Open Space Foundation is a non-profit organization, established in 2009, to nurture friendly, safe, clean and well-maintained parks and open spaces that enrich the entire community by inspiring creation, education and an enhanced quality of life. GPOSF has been fundraising for parks, and trails and open space programs since its establishment. To make a tax-deductible donation, visit <http://www.glendaleparksfoundation.org/donate/>.
